

Yateley Cricket Club E-Safety Policy

All members and guests of Yateley Cricket Club will:

- Take responsibility for their own use of communication and interactive technologies, making sure that they use new technologies safely, responsibly and legally within the context of cricket.
- No communication device or service, including interactive communication services such as social networking may be used to bring the club, its members or cricket into disrepute.
- No communication device or service, including interactive services such as social networking may be used for inappropriate behaviour online within the context of cricket including the bullying or harassment of others in any form, defamation, obscene or abusive language the uploading of material which libellous, defamatory, obscene, illegal, shows nudity or is violent.
- Report any known misuses of communication and interactive technologies within the context of cricket, including unacceptable behaviour, inappropriate contact with children online and illegal content including sexual abuse/indecent images of children, according to the relevant club and ECB safeguarding policies and procedures.
- Need to be aware that any report of the misuse of communication and interactive technologies within the context of cricket will be investigated according to the club's policy and procedures and may result in the club's sanctions being enforced. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident legal action may be taken and where suspected criminal activity has taken place a report will be made to the police.
- Follow ECB guidelines set out in the 'Safe Hands – Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children' and any other relevant guidelines issued.
- Report any concerns in relation to a child, following reporting procedures laid down by the ECB.

When using the network within the Yateley Cricket Club venue:

- Protect passwords and personal network logins and log off the network when leaving devices unattended
- Set appropriate security settings on mobile devices
- Use the network for legal and appropriate activity

Any attempts to access, corrupt or destroy other users' data in any way is totally unacceptable.

YATELEY CRICKET CLUB

ESTABLISHED 1881

In addition to the above, all Club Officers and Appointed Volunteers will:

- Take responsibility for their professional reputation in the online environment, making sure they follow e-safety advice, adhere to privacy and safety settings and report any concerns in accordance with the club and ECB policies and procedures.
- Not ask for email addresses, mobiles phone numbers or social networking profiles of junior members (under 18) or search for junior members on social networking services without the prior consent of parents and in line with the club's policy on the use of information including emergency situations.
- Not develop an online relationship with a young player with the intention of meeting them offline to engage in sexual activity. Sexual exploitation, including grooming a child under the age of 16 for the purpose of meeting to engage in sexual activity, is a serious criminal offence.
- Not view, possess, make or distribute sexual abuse/indecent images of children. This is a serious criminal offence.
- Review with the YCC committee ECB guidelines on the use of social media before engaging in activity on behalf of Yateley Cricket Club using any of these media.

If you would like to report any concerns you have about e-Safety please contact our Club Safeguarding Officer, Jessica Hill (jesshill95@outlook.com).
